

Supporting small business lending and Paycheck Protection Program (PPP)

At a time when so much remains uncertain, community focused banks and credit unions are vital in paving a path forward for small and mid-sized businesses still being impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Finastra's goal is to help our community lenders optimize their business and consumer lending to better serve their customers - whether working remotely or in a branch - We have you covered.

Self-service PPP loan applications

Provide borrowers with a quick and easy way to apply for a PPP loan from the convenience of their personal computer, phone or other device.

This service supports includes a secure repository where borrowers can upload any supporting documents you require.

Post the application link to your website or email personalized links

Frictionless user experience

Simple and efficient

This service can be used later to process PPP Forgiveness applications.

SBA lending suite for PPP and PPP 2nd draw

Increase loan production by up to 10x with scalability and purposeful automation, all while reducing risk.

Speed close times and reduce errors with a fully automated loan lifecycle

Improve workflows for submissions and authorizations

Seamless channel integration from application through closing

Virtual working suite

Meet borrower demand, wherever they may be, with digital flexibility and remote signature options.

eSignature solutions

