

Preferred Active Support

Take a proactive approach to product resiliency and efficiency while optimizing usage and ROI, and minimizing risk

Leverage a global, collaborative expert team that's focused on helping you achieve your objectives using proven, best-practice methodologies. Preferred Active Support gives you more control over your success.

Modernization. Constant change. Escalating risk. There is no steady state in today's banking landscape. Dealing with these evolving pressures while optimizing TCO and meeting customer expectations is a challenge all banks face today.

However, not all institutions have the resources to drive the delivery excellence that's needed: they may lack the tooling, automation, expertise or simply, time.

Finastra's Preferred Active Support package is designed to ensure banks have the proactive support they need to tackle these challenges. It's a collaborative relationship with a strategic partner that's focused on helping you achieve your business outcomes. As an annual subscription, it gives you consistent, expert support and control over your costs throughout the year.

Preferred Active Support is based on four pillars:
