Sygnity joins Misys InFusion Programme as a Strategic Partner in Poland

10 February 2015 – Sygnity S.A. and Misys, the leading financial software company, have signed a strategic partnership agreement which covers the Polish market. By joining the Misys InFusion programme, Sygnity has joined a prestigious international group of Misys partner companies. This partnership significantly enhances Sygnity’s presence and capability in the Polish banking sector.

Sygnity has deep experience in supporting key core banking operations, such as credit management, mobile banking and banking automation. These solutions are related to the needs of banks in retail, corporate and investment, as well as distribution channels for banking products and services, such as mobile and online. Sygnity’s highly-skilled consultants have a deep knowledge of both Misys FusionBanking and Digital Channels. Through a number of acquisitions Sygnity now has one of the largest specialist IT workforces in Poland, with over 1,500 staff.

Bogdan Zborowski, Sygnity Vice-President of the Management Board responsible for Sales, stated: “Our knowledge of the Polish market, combined with our expertise in key banking operations, will perfectly complement the capabilities of Misys in the core banking sector. We both have an innovative approach to designing and launching services, especially in the online and mobile sectors. This partnership will enable us to create even more value for banks and financial institutions.”

“Sygnity are a well-known and respected brand in the Polish market,” commented Brian Gibson, Misys VP Partners & Ecosystem. “Because of their expertise in core banking operations, they are a significant addition to our InFusion Partner programme and a powerful vehicle for developing our ecosystem in the Polish market.”

By joining the Misys InFusion Partner programme, Sygnity enhances its position as a leader in banking and financial sector solutions. One of Sygnity’s core objectives is to strengthen its position in the Polish IT market as a provider of professional IT consulting services for core banking systems, including online and mobile banking systems as well as treasury and trading solutions. Partnering with Misys is a major milestone in achieving this objective.
