Global Market Solutions partners with Misys to provide additional European Treasury and Capital Markets project expertise

20 April 2015 – Misys, the leading financial software company, has signed an agreement with Global Market Solutions (GMS) to become a member of the InFusion Partner Programme. GMS provides expertise in implementation and integration projects around financial software for a range of activities, including front to back office analysis, risk management, IT architecture and development.

GMS has a pool of FusionCapital Summit experts located in Europe and is able to provide Front-to-Back Process flow definition for the Treasury and Capital Market products. GMS has extensive capability in delivering business solutions based on FusionCapital Summit and has significant training expertise on FusionCapital Summit software. GMS also provides a complete solution covering all Counterparty Credit Risk project streams which addresses the weaknesses of existing CVA implementations.

Misys Vice President Partners & Ecosystem, Brian Gibson, states: “Global Market Solutions has many years of experience in capital markets and risk management and a very deep knowledge of the Misys portfolio of solutions. We are delighted that Global Market Solutions have joined the Misys InFusion Partner programme as we jointly drive our expanding businesses in France and across Europe.”

Dominique Vignaux, CEO, Global Market Solutions, commented: “We are delighted to be in partnership with Misys. We have many years’ experience of working with their product portfolio, especially with FusionCapital Summit. This agreement will allow us to expand our services and deepen our relationship with that community.”

Misys and GMS have already started joint work on regulatory topics to offer additional solutions in the short term. The partnership is definitively adding value to the Summit Customer community with the coordination and joint efforts from both companies’ resources and expertise.
