

Factsheet

Finastra Total Lending Home is your bridge to the cloud future

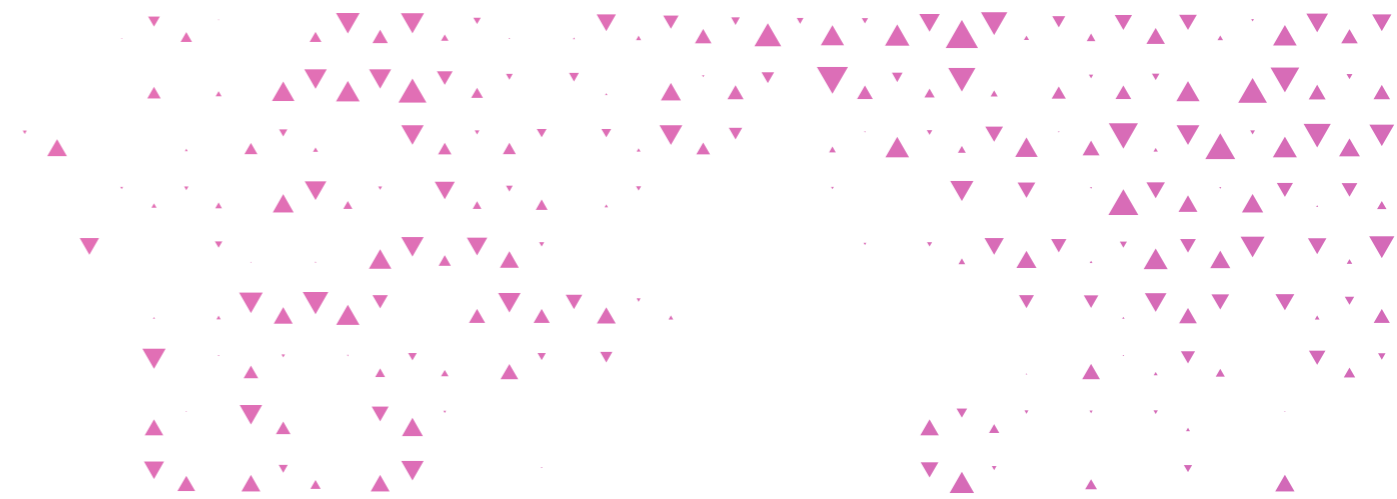

Launch and manage Finastra lending solutions from a single access point based on Microsoft Azure cloud technology

//

State-of-the-art user interface and experience provides a single view of your lending activity alongside the latest compliance news and product information.

The future is cloud

Finastra's new Total Lending Home is the bridge that takes you there as we transform our on-premise applications to cloud technology. Hosted on Finastra's Azure private cloud, it's a single access point for authentication, launching, viewing, and managing your Total Lending product suite.*

How it works

Launch

Launch applications, start a new transaction or call up a specific transaction using a single sign-on powered by Microsoft's secure Azure Active Directory

View

With data fed in directly from source systems, you get a clear and simple view of both on-premise and cloud products

Manage

Take care of specific admin tasks such as updating rates, templates, standard products and policies directly from Finastra Total Lending Home (currently available Fusion LaserPro users and Fusion DepositPro Admin users')

Benefits:

- Single sign-on to Total Lending products*
- Stay on top of news from regulators and Finastra
- Data feeds from Total Lending products*
- New features released every two weeks

Requirements:

- Fusion LaserPro version 21.X.XX or later
- Microsoft Azure Active Directory
- Registration in Total Lending
- Protocol handler installed on each user PC to enable the launch of LaserPro and DepositPro
