BUY & SELL loans and seek loan participation

CONVENIENTLY import loan data from Fusion LaserPro

Eliminate manual portfolio management and easily buy and sell loans for portfolio and risk management through the Fusion Loan Market

The Fusion Loan Market is a secondary loan marketplace where Total Lending clients can buy and sell loans.

Whether new loans closed through Fusion LaserPro or those boarded to a core system, the Fusion Loan Market enables institutions to easily manage their portfolio and associated risk in a secure and convenient online marketplace.

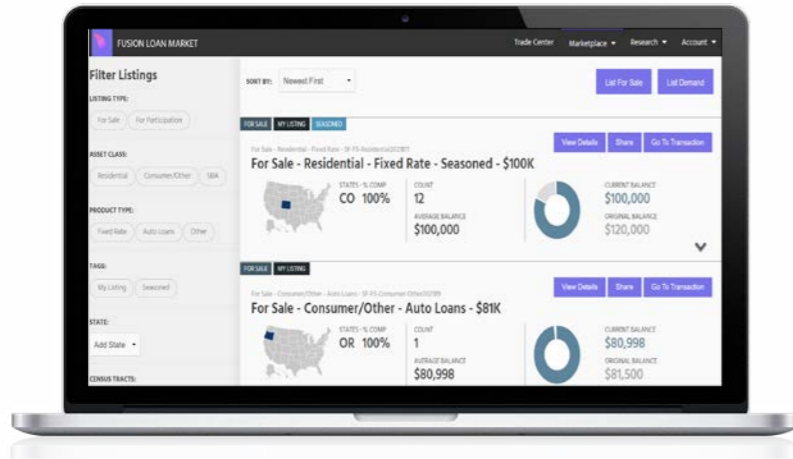

This fully mobile adaptive platform provides institutions greater access to the national secondary market. By downloading and installing the Fusion Loan Market interface, clients can easily create a listing on the marketplace for any new loan originated through Fusion LaserPro.

Clients can choose which loans they want to list for sale on the marketplace, either as individual loans or as a group of loans. Originated loans through Fusion LaserPro can be selected and the required listing data uploaded to the Fusion Loan Market interface with no rekeying of data.

Loans already in an institutions portfolio can also be listed on the marketplace by populating a few fields.

Through the Fusion Loan Market clients can also buy loans and seek loan participation. Within the marketplace each institution can see their active listings, negotiate with potential buyers, upload supporting documentation, and track all sales/purchases.

Users also have convenient navigation and filtering of data fields such as product type, asset class, loan amount, geography, FICO score, debt-to-income ratio, and other credit metrics.
