Corporate Channels Assist.Al

Experience effortless transaction management with our co-pilot

Seamlessly populate data using voice commands and navigate through queries with natural language. It's as simple and intuitive as having a conversation.

Assist.AI is a generative AI-powered virtual assistant embedded in Finastra's Corporate Channels platform. It delivers conversational support and provides real-time insights for corporate banking users.

Conversational interface

Natural language and voice-enabled prompts for intuitive engagement.

Contextual guidance

Pre-trained on Corporate Channels manuals to deliver accurate, operational help.

Single Sign-On

Seamless access within Corporate Channels without extra logins.

Extendable knowledge bas

Incorporates bank-specific documentation and terminology.

Cloud - agnostic architecture

Supports any AI service, including Azure, OpenAI, and GCP.

Prompt configuration available

Customizable prompts to anticipate user needs and streamline interactions.

Instant access to information via text or voice prompts

Faster decisions with real-time insights

Lower support costs with self-service AI

Personalized, contextual user experience

