

Loan IQ: The world’s preeminent loan servicing platform

Grow, optimize and automate corporate and commercial lending with Loan IQ, Finastra’s market-leading loan servicing solution

What it does

A comprehensive solution

Loan IQ is the world’s most trusted commercial loan servicing platform that can support all of your lending needs, from simple bilateral/SME lending to complex corporate and syndicated loans. Loan IQ has unrivaled depth and breadth of functionality, extensive asset-class coverage, operating on a modern tech stack that offers interoperability and agility required in today’s increasingly competitive and rapidly changing market.

Busting the myth

Loan IQ is renowned for its ability to support syndicated complex loans, so much so that some mistakenly believe that’s all it can do, however that is a myth. Loan IQ enables you to efficiently consolidate all commercial loan types on one platform ensuring a superior client experience for borrowers. Loan IQ serves as a full end-to-end loan servicing solution that reduces processing times and integration costs, allowing for greater automation and improved controls throughout the loan servicing lifecycle.
